

Journal Selection Report for your paper titled: Manuscript Title

Dear Dr. Author,

This Journal selection report will help you finalize a target journal for your paper. It has been compiled considering the scope, indexing requirements, and impact factor range best suited for your paper in its current form. We have considered your preferences in this report, which has been prepared to move you ahead in your publication journey. However, please note that a journal's editorial team considers multiple factors that do not rely on this report alone.

That said, we truly are committed to supporting you throughout your publication journey and will recommend another suitable target journal at no additional charge to you in the following instances:

- If you receive an out-of-scope rejection from a journal that Harvard Publication Hub recommends in this report
- If any of the journals Harvard Publication Hub recommends are subsequently acquired by predatory publishers.

More specifically, we have considered these preferences you shared with us:

1. Preferred journal: Journal A

Next steps for you

- To proceed with the next step of your service pack, please select one target journal from the journal selection report.

Thank you for choosing Harvard Publication Hub as your publication partner! We are happy to address any questions you may have on the report.

Best Regards,
Harvard Publication Hub

Harvard Publication Hub recommends: Journal B

We suggest that you target journal B for the publication of your manuscript as it offers the best scope match among the shortlisted journals.

- Higher likelihood of acceptance
- Adherence to your indexing requirements
- Carries no mandatory open access files
- A fast review period

Please note, that the final decision to choose a journal is yours as the author of the above-mentioned paper. We have shortlisted additional suitable Journals in Tables A and B below. Please go over the Information shared below in detail before finalizing your target journal.

Table [A] assesses 5 journals based on the scientific content of your manuscript

How to read the table above: "YES" in table [A] indicates?

Shortlisted by: Journals shortlisted by the author and/ or Harvard Publication Hub; any author preferences will be included here.

Scope Match and Similar Research Published: The manuscript matches the aim/ scope described on the journal website and has published articles similar in scope.

This indicates that the manuscript is a suitable fit for the journal and reduces the likelihood of receiving an 'out- of-scope' rejection.

Indexing Preference: The journal is indexed on the specific database required by the author.

Impact Factor Preference: The journal has an impact factor within the range specified by the author.

Fast Publication: The journal has an average peer review decision time of 3 to 6 weeks.

Mandatory Open Access: The journal only offers open-access publication, which will incur an additional publication fee.

Table [B] lists additional information about the shortlisted journals
